Assistant Secretary roles

Position description

Position Overview

Location: Canberra, ACT, Sydney, NSW, Brisbane, QLD and Melbourne, VIC

The Department of Health (the Department) is seeking talented and experienced executives to join its senior leadership team to help ensure we respond to current and emerging challenges to the health of Australians, our health and aged care system, and the government's objectives in relation to sport. We work as a team to develop and implement coherent, connected and evidence-based responses.

Several opportunities exist at the Branch Head level (SES Band 1) for highly motivated leaders with outstanding policy, program management and organisational change experience and strategic vision. You will contribute to a range of complex policy and program management issues, including developing and implementing major government reforms.

You will also support the Secretary and executive team in the leadership and direction setting of the Department. Successful candidates will have demonstrated their ability and commitment to shape the culture and capability of the Department.

A central element of your role will be contributing to shaping the culture and capability of the Department. Successful candidates will share Health's commitment to flexible work arrangements. This includes being committed to Health's goal of supporting staff at all levels to do their best work from the location that enables this.

Relevant Experience

To be a strong contender for these important and challenging roles you will need to be forward thinking, self-motivated, resilient and adept at building relationships in a large complex and fast-paced environment. Your strong leadership credentials and ability to engender trust and respect will be complemented by sound judgement, a strong focus on results and the ability to resolve complex issues in a public sector context, including by winning support, marshalling resources and leveraging relationships. You will also have high level policy advisory experience relating to major government reforms and a sound understanding of the expectations of Ministers. With extensive management experience at a senior executive level you will be experienced in providing strategic leadership and direction, and building the capability of your team and the organisation more broadly.

Leadership and Personal Attributes

Health is seeking leaders with:

- The vision to provide the best policy advice to government, including an exceptional results orientation based on leading by example with a resilient and positive approach to issues resolution.
- The influence to take forward the Government's policy agenda with the intelligence, persuasiveness, professionalism, authenticity and credibility necessary to leverage both formal and informal authority.
- First class collaboration, communication and interpersonal skills that build relationships based on understanding, respect and trust, ensuring Health listens to and learns from stakeholders. An openness to diverse perspectives is critical.
- The ability to deliver complex projects, programs and services including, increasing the use of digital tools, flexibility in how, when and where work is undertaken, and eliminating/streamlining unnecessary processes and 'red tape'.
- A focus on enabling and nurturing people and relationships to ensure an inclusive and collaborative approach, where people are supported to deliver to the best of their ability. This includes setting expectations, uniting people behind a strategic vision, astute judgement, political nous, the ability to lead and support people through change, the development of staff and building the capability of the organisation.
- The entrepreneurial skills and commitment to generate new ideas, experiment with different approaches, achieve outcomes on behalf of citizens and engage positively and creatively with risk, and
- The courage, self-awareness and resilience to manage the challenges of leadership, including a proactive approach to their own personal and professional development and a citizen centric focus.

Future SES Band 1 Appointments

While the Department intends to fill several Band 1 level positions in the near future, it may also select candidates from this process for other branch head vacancies over the next twelve months.

Qualifications

Relevant tertiary qualifications are desirable. In addition, membership of relevant professional associations or institutes will be well regarded.

Security

This position requires the successful candidate to have (or the ability to obtain) a security clearance.

Tenure

The successful candidate will be offered ongoing employment under the Public Service Act 1999.

Remuneration

A Total Remuneration Package (TRP) reflecting the importance of the position will be negotiated with the successful candidate. The TRP comprises of:

- Base salary
- Superannuation
- Motor vehicle allowance
- Official parking

Other entitlements (in addition to TRP) may include:

- Airline lounge membership
- Home office support
- Provisions for leave and relevant allowances (e.g. travel) etc.
- Relocation assistance (if relevant)

Assistance with Relocation

Assistance with removal expenses and / or short term accommodation assistance may be provided if interstate relocation is involved.

Eligibility

To be eligible for engagement to the Australian Public Service (APS), applicants must be Australian citizens or have permanent residency status pending the granting of Australian citizenship. There are also restrictions on the employment of people who have received a redundancy benefit from an APS agency or the Australian Parliamentary Service and who is still within their 'redundancy benefit period' or restriction period. These arrangements do not apply to persons who have received a redundancy benefit from a non-APS Commonwealth employer, from a State/Territory Government employer, or from the private sector. There are no restrictions on such persons competing on merit for APS employment.

Prospective appointees will be required to satisfy health, character and security checks.

Please note that, with any vacancy, it is important that you check your own circumstances and ability to meet the eligibility requirements.

RecruitAbility

RecruitAbility applies to this vacancy. You will be invited to participate in further assessment activity for the vacancy if you choose to apply under the RecruitAbility scheme; declare you have a disability; and meet the minimum requirements for the job.

For more information see: www.apsc.gov.au/priorities/disability/recruitability.

The Department

The Health Portfolio works towards achieving better health and wellbeing for all Australians, now and for future generations. Australia has one of the best health systems in the world and, with our partners, our objective is to keep it that way.

The Department of Health has a diverse set of responsibilities and works closely with other government agencies, consumers and stakeholders to strengthen evidence-based policy advice and design, implement and manage government programs, research and regulation. The Department has a lead role in ensuring Australians can access the health and aged care they need when they need it – safely, conveniently and affordably. Sport is an integral part of Australia's health, social and economic well-being and the Department also plays a fundamental role in supporting the Government's objectives in the sports sector.

The Department's Behaviours in Action

To achieve the Department's vision, the Executive fosters a culture where all staff:

- Collaborate to innovate – work with others to make a difference
- Invest in high performance – nurture talent and builds capability in others
- Trust and empower – build trust to exercise responsibility
- Listen and appreciate – listen with intent and value contributions
- Walk the talk – lead by example and embrace change

More information
